To Mr. P.E. Larsson, prosecutor
(S. Morberg)

Stockholm

Although no clear appointments have been made, which is understandable for me because of the circumstances, I consider our meeting as useful. Perhaps it has been of importance for you as well.

I think we discussed everything I planned to talk about. Of course possible results of our talks -for both of us- will be most satisfying.

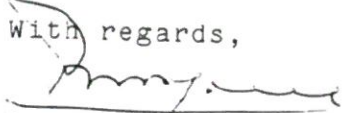

Knowing that the PKK-involvement in the Palme-murdercase probably will be re-investigated, I advise you to consider to exploit my knowledge and experience in the Bilgili-case up till now, as former leader of [REDACTED].

When the Bilgili-investigation will be re-opened (as well), it could be of great impact for your doings.

This means that I suggest you to arrange an official request to the Dutch authorities to give space for a continuation in the Dutch case, in cooperation with you and your team. Of course I think I have to be charged.

I realise it takes some time to study this proposal. Nevertheless I hope to hear soon.

With regards,

R.W. (Dolf) van Soest
